Specialist Speech & Language Therapists in Learning Disabilities can help with:

Understand what other people are telling you.

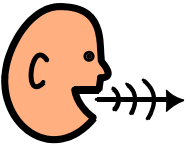

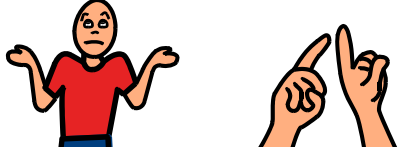

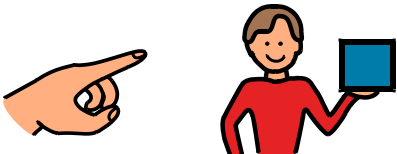

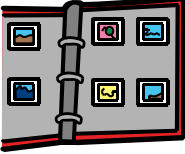

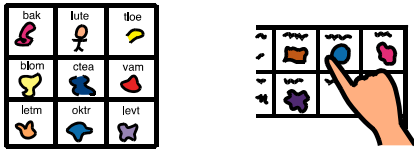

Understand what is going on around you and what people want you to do.

This could be by helping you to listen well, understand words, the meaning of objects, to recognise gestures, signs, pictures, photographs, symbols and that the way people look or say something can help us to know what they are saying or feeling.

pictures and photographs 	symbols 	facial expression

Let other people know what you need, want and how you are feeling.

This could be by helping you to communicate using speech, objects, gestures, pointing, showing, signs, pictures, photographs, symbols, know when to speak and when to listen to others, how to greet people, take turns, and ask questions.

Enjoy mealtimes and to eat, drink and swallow safely.

This could be by making sure you are sitting in a good position, your food and drinks are made the best way, using the right equipment, and people are supporting you well.
