

Congratulations!
The child is leading

Steps to Letting the child lead Play

Wait for the child to initiate

Observe the child's actions and play

Move if you need to, in order to maintain this position

Be face to face – at the same level, opposite & close together

Let the child do what THEY want to do with the toys

Let the child choose the toys