5 ways to support children’s transition

- Make a book of their questions AND the answers so they can keep revisiting it
- Get photos of key people and places
- Tell them about any new rules in their next class or setting
- Acknowledge their anxieties but make sure you are confident and positive yourself about the change
- Tell them what will be the SAME about their new class or setting as well as what will be different!